

Mark Andrews

Production Sound Mixer & Sound Recordist

Mark has actively been involved in the Film/TV industry for the last ten years. Since graduating with a Music Technology Degree from the London College of Music and Media in 2009, he has gained experience by working on a variety of projects in many genres. This experience can be directly applied to modern and creative sound recording solutions in the field.

Full member of Association of Motion Picture Sound (AMPS) & Institute of Professional Sound (IPS)
